AFFIDAVIT OF ROBERT H. BRAVER

I, Robert H. Braver, having first been duly sworn under oath, do hereby state:

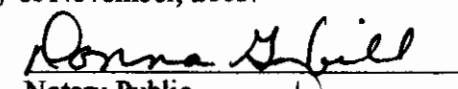

1. I am the Plaintiff in the above-captioned case. I am over eighteen years of age and competent to testify. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein.
2. Shortly after the default judgment was rendered in this case, Robert Soloway posted a number of messages regarding the case to two online forums, specifically the SPAM-L mailing list and the news.admin.net-abuse.email Usenet newsgroup.
3. A true and correct example of a SPAM-L mailing list message is attached as Exhibit "D". Between September 24 and September 26, 2005, a person purporting to be Robert Soloway posted a total of 10 messages from the nim@cyberservices.com email address.
4. A true and correct example of a Usenet posting is attached as Exhibit "E". The "NNTP-Posting-Host" headers of these messages indicate that the messages were posted from the IP (Internet Protocol) address 66.235.61.122.
5. I performed a reverse-DNS (Domain Name System) lookup on this IP address, which yielded "c66-235-61-122.sea2.cablespeed.com," which based on my experience with common naming conventions of broadband network operators along with information from Millenium Cablespeed's web site, indicates a cable modem subscriber in the Seattle, Washington area.
6. I maintain an approximation of the U.S. Courts' ECF docket for this case on one of my web servers, accessible at <http://www.mortgagespam.com/soloway>. The copy of the online docket that I maintain includes the PDF documents filed in the case.
7. A true and correct listing of the web server log entries for accesses from the 66.235.61.122 IP address is attached hereto as Exhibit "F".
8. My web servers generate standard access logs that I maintain in the normal course of business.

9. The web server logs indicate that the user at the 66.235.61.122 IP address first retrieved my Motion for Default Judgment filed on September 12, 2005 (Docket Entry No. 14) on September 14, 2005 at 4:15 P.M. Central Daylight Time.
10. The web server logs further indicate that the user at the 66.235.61.122 IP address first retrieved the Order deferring ruling on my motion and setting the matter for hearing, filed on September 12, 2005 (Docket Entry No. 16), on September 14, 2005 at 2:41 P.M. Central Daylight Time.

SUBJ: COURT: Robert Braver wins big against Soloway
DATE: Monday, September 26, 2005 7:56 AM

Good morning guys...

Just talked to my lawyer in Oklahoma. I was very happy to hear the good news for everyone.

This will be one of the most simple judgement and injunction reversals ever performed, and hopefully have criminal and civil implications for braver.

Of course not everyone is familiar with the case.. but in regards to the can-spam permanent injunction he requested, in which he lied to the judge about his authority as a governmental official through court briefings, here's a copy and paste for everyone to see who can file an injunction under can-spam to see as to who and why he cannot file for such an injunction, yet did under false pretenses of indicating he was allowed to do so per se rewriting the law in his "own words". Not a nice move.. the legal system and judges do not like that from what I hear...

I wonder if Braver realizes how serious of a crime it is to write false legal documents, misleading judges and the integrity of the legal system impersonating that they are a governmental authority... nor does he seem to realize that he can't file for relief under can-spam in this suit being an "individual" as he filed as "Robert H. Braver, an Individual, Plaintiff"

There's actually 6 pages of legal misconduct in this case, but i'll let the attorneys take care of the entire legal malpractice and legal misconduct.

Of course, the law is only what really matters... and it is posted below for all to see, from spamlaws.com

Unless one is a governmental authority, one cannot request an entire permanent injunction/enjoinment under the guise of can-spam of 2003, under which the complaint indicates braver says he entitled to through falsehoods and lies and his "rewriting" of the federal code.. once again.. not a wise decision on his part...

These falsehoods and lies will pay for the tens of thousands of dollars in legal bills through the entire appeals process. Essentially, braver will be paying for my entire case :)

And if not paid in full, seizure of any and all assets, including homes, cars, etc.. to collect said funds will definately ensue.

Also Braver doesn't seem to understand, the Oklahoma law is $10 per day or upto $25,000 per day including legal fees. Since he didn't request legal fees, the total to be owed is about $2,000 at most, (not $10 million <g>) which he is most welcome to come to Washington to come and try to collect.

No need to worry, all will be clarified in the appeal which Braver will be paying for due to his legal misconduct in this case.

As said previously, everything came into place. I went through the Microsoft lawsuit for 1 1/2 years. When you deal with some of the most experienced and highest priced lawyers in the world, you learn alot about the legal system, and what legal decisions to make when dealing with a lawsuit...

Does anyone want to congratulate braver now? :)

All paperwork will be posted shortly for everyone to see.. and pictures of collected assets will of course follow as well in digital picture format.

(f) Enforcement by States-

(1) CIVIL ACTION- In any case in which the attorney general of a State, or an official or agency of a State, has reason to believe that an interest of the residents of that State has been or is threatened or adversely affected by any person who violates paragraph (1) or (2) of section 5(a), who violates section 5(d), or who engages in a pattern or practice that violates paragraph (3), (4), or (5) of section 5(a), of this Act, the attorney general, official, or agency of the State, as parens patriae, may bring a civil action on behalf of the residents of the State in a district court of the United States of appropriate jurisdiction--

(A) to enjoin further violation of section 5 of this Act by the defendant; or

(B) to obtain damages on behalf of residents of the State, in an amount equal to the greater of--

(i) the actual monetary loss suffered by such residents; or

(ii) the amount determined under paragraph (3).

(2) AVAILABILITY OF INJUNCTIVE RELIEF WITHOUT SHOWING OF KNOWLEDGE- Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, in a civil action under paragraph (1)(A) of this subsection, the attorney general, official, or agency of the State shall not be required to allege or prove the state of mind required by section 5(a)(1)(C), section 5(a)(2), clause (ii), (iii), or (iv) of section 5(a)(4)(A), section 5(b)(1)(A), or section 5(b)(3).

Comments from Robert Soloway:

I've been reading these posts and have found them quite entertaining, although unfortunately nobody here is aware of the true facts of the matter at hand.

Unfortunately, the injunction was filed improperly with the court. There was never a request for an original injunction requested in the original court complaint papers, so the injunction is invalidated upon notification to the court, (as it will be invalidated next week, and hopefully braver will be sanctioned potentially criminally, not just civilly for his misuse and abuse of the court system.)

In regards to money, there is no money to collect. Microsoft has already spent much of this year trying to collect $8,750,000. How much have they collected? $0.00. Ask them yourselves if you do not believe me.

Of course thanks to various sources, I will always have financial resources to pay any and all legal fees as needed and live as I do for the rest of my life, which are completely unobtainable as they are not mine. I do not own any assets, property, vehicles, anything, which has been proven in the Microsoft case in their collection attempts over the past several months.

Braver is welcome to attempt to collect as well, but unfortunately his endeavors will yield a fruitless tree.

I donate most all of my money to charity per se the purpose of emails sent out, and benefit countless non-profit charities and worldwide non-profit causes for non-commercial, non-relationship and non-transactional purposes as that is the purpose of the emails sent out as specified. I just donated $500 to hurricane katrina red cross relief efforts the other day and will continue to donate to charity for the rest of my life to assist others in financial need.

Unfortunately the injunction was not properly pursued and actually is legal malpractice which will be immediately overturned next week, since the original complaint never mentioned anything about a potential injunction.

The entire case will be on appeal for years and new legal representation retained and the injunction will be found invalid, already done and confirmed, along with a countersuit against braver and his company for extensive damages.

One must not follow the media or what they see as fact. By standing up to Microsoft for 1 1/2 years, I think it should prove apparent I am very familiar with the legal system and very familiar with this case as well.

It is apparent that braver is not a lawyer, as the injunction was never part of the original complaint, so thus cannot be awarded in the default judgement as fact. Any lawyer with any simple knowledge of the legal system would never engage in such legal malpractice and non-compliance.

Unfortunately braver, did just that, and his lawyer Michael McKee and himself will soon learn from their costly mistakes. Michael McKee, braver's lawyer might actually even lose his legal license for his legal malpractice in regards to this case.

The case relating to braver in washington and his company will be beginning in the state of washington very shortly, as his slander and libel against me, saying falsely that I have victims has negatively affected my personal and future business life, which can potentially cost me millions, if not tens of millions of dollars, as it comes up on search engines. And for future employers, this can potentially ruin my business career for the rest of my life.

All I can say is.. everything has now fallen into place with the default judgement and malpractice injunction. I sincerely wish braver the best with his company and himself and sincerely hope that he has already secured the best and most expensive possible lawyer on retainer in the state of Washington, as I have done in the state of Oklahoma.

Take care everyone, and be sure to donate as much as you can to non-profits worldwide to help others in need.

Yours truly,

- Robert Soloway
